On the road of experience
 I'm trying to find my own way
 Sometimes I wish that I could fly away
 When I think that I'm moving
 Suddenly things stand still
 I'm afraid 'cause I think they always will
 And I'm looking for space
 And to find out who I am
 And I'm looking to know and understand
 It's a sweet sweet dream
 Sometimes I'm almost there
 Sometimes I fly like an eagle and Sometimes I'm deep in despair
 All alone in the universe
 Sometimes that's how it seems
 I get lost in the sadness and the screams
 Then I look in the center
 Suddenly everything's clear
 I find myself in the sunshine and my dreams

The 1976-1977 school year brought many unique experiences to the Bishop Dwenger Community. We shared the optimism that each new school year brings to classes, assemblies and to sports competitions. The joy of victories and the thrills of individual achievements gave us pride in each other and in our school.

The year also brought to the school a unity caused by the deep concern we felt for some of our members. We were witnesses to a tremendous display in spiritual and physical courage in the face of pain and suffering and eventual death. Bob Wehrly "Brought 1100 souls closer together, not by beating a martial drum or broadcasting a revolutionary appeal, but by simply suffering, inspiring by his quiet courage an entire school, to discover in itself its own Christianity."

The experiences affected us differently, but we all have grown, we have all progressed on our road to maturity.

Leadership Through Administration

Father Krason takes time out of his busy schedule to enjoy a play with a younger saint.

Is Mr. Woods giving secret hand signals, or is he looking for a ride?

Through the strength of our leaders, Bishop Dwenger once again had an effective administration this year. The leadership provided by the administration helped to set the tone for everyone else at Dwenger.

Father Edward Krason served as principal for the fourteenth year. He was assisted by Sister Denis Wortman and Mr. Joseph Woods. Mrs. Pat Gentile took over the responsibilities of Dean of Women from Sister Denis, so that she could further assist Father Krason. As Dean of Men, Mr. Larry Bartolameo worked with Mrs. Gentile to aid the students with their problems. Mr. Dick Krouse contributed to the administration by acting as Athletic Director and Business Manager. Father Krason also received assistance from his new secretary, Sister Pauline.

Sr. Denis takes a minute for a picture, then continues with her class.

Mrs. Gentile and Mrs. Sciarini seem to have worked this problem out to a happy conclusion.

Mr. Bart, why aren' you busy? Aren't there any Dwenger men who need haircuts?

From the smile on her face it's evident that Sister Pauline enjoys typing.

Mr. Krouse manages to teach an Accounting class in addition to his duties as athletic director.

Father Krason, at a pep session, inspires his saints to do their best.

Guidance — Help Along The Way

Oh Garsh Senior! You've only got 39.5 credits.

Although loaded down with work, Miss Arata can keep on smiling.

Father Holt waits patiently for a visit from Mr. Crall's "lost sheep".

The Guidance Department proved to be an essential part of Bishop Dwenger through the help and cooperation of its staff members. Father John Pfister, director, together with Father Phil Suehr, performed the many duties associated with the department. The loss of Miss Cathy Arata in December greatly affected the councilors, increasing their responsibilities. The work, nevertheless, was accomplished.

The ladies in the office take time out of their busy day to celebrate Mrs. Gentile's birthday.

The office personnel were willing to help anyone in need. They provided the necessary information, along with a smile, to keep the administration running smoothly.

Cafeteria And Maintenance — Backbone Of Dwenger

Can he do it? Dan Palermo attempts to make quick work of his sandwich by devouring it in one bite.

The cafeteria and maintenance staffs proved to be very important at Bishop Dwenger. Throughout the year their aid was greatly needed and willingly given.

The cafeteria workers showed their cooking abilities through the preparation of the food. Their talents made it possible to feed the many students.

To the maintenance men no job was too large. Anything that needed doing, from fixing jammed lockers to keeping the school spotless, was done with a smile. If they could not solve a problem, they at least gave it a good try.

The "Mop Squad" takes time out to supplement their income.

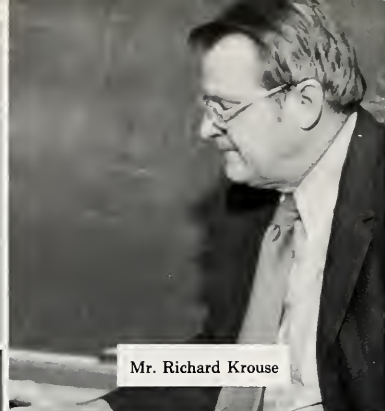

Here we see an excellent demonstration of efficient assembly-line technique.

Spreading the Word takes much dedication, and Dwenger has captured that dedication in the teachers of the Religion Department. Mr. Doug Pryor and Mr. Vincent Murray, the new members of the staff, joined with the rest of the Religion Department in spreading the word through class studies, special projects, and chapel visits.

Mike looks around in disbelief at Mr. Loney's last statement in Social Issues class.

Bishop Dwenger's "Thinker".

Mr. Scudder teaches these Juniors more about the history of their faith in his Religion classes.

There's nothing like a "Good Book" to get you interested in Religion class — is there Kent?

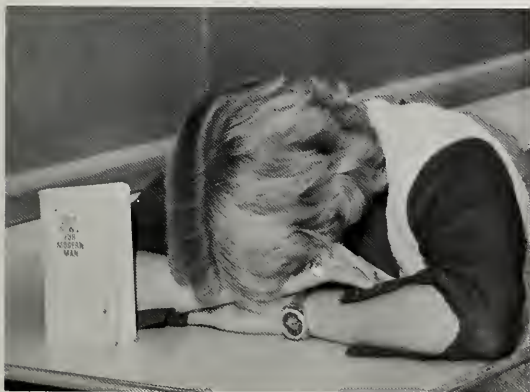

Spreading The Word

Gee John, you make Marriage class so interesting.

Mr. Adang has no trouble getting his students to "swallow" what he teaches.

This unsuspecting Sophomore demonstrates the most important part of Religion class — meditation?

Chapel visits help to round off our Christian education.

Mrs. Raison always seems to be listening, even though she's really catching up on her beauty rest.

This freshman has really taken control of her English class.

Dr. Reily and Jim Steigmeyer seem as interested as Shelley Bashara is in her essay.

English: Exploring Our World

Kathy Faylor, Jerry Voors, Linda Goodman, Debbie Chamness, and Sandy Gladieux bring back "the good old days" of the middle ages for American Lit class.

Many English courses were offered this year, with general literature required for all students. Seniors were taught College Prep Writing by Miss Jackson and Literary Analysis by Mr. Tierney. Dr. Rielly, the only new member of the English staff, instructed News Media. Mrs. Johnston was head of the Department, and other teachers included Mrs. Raison, Mrs. Stropke, Mrs. Kaltenmark and Mrs. Barnes.

Are these two Seniors building their dream house or doing an English project?

Kim Krupinski meditates before writing the next word.

Tina Heinecke really digs her English class.

Joe Bonahoom puts an end to the ragged edges on an English paper.

Mrs. Johnston willingly lends a hand to her Freshmen English classes.

Math — A Graphic Pleasure

Chalk in hand, calculators by their side this year's Math Department strove to bring the understanding of numbers to their students. With the cry of "Front row to the board," the Math teachers covered everything from polynomials to Newton's third law.

Sr. Renee, a newcomer, taught Seniors Analytic Geometry and Analysis of Functions. Sr. Denis and Dr. Ruiz taught Freshmen Algebra while Mrs. Hinkle and Mr. Meyer made shapes a little clearer to their Sophomore Geometry classes. Mr. Crall taught Elementary Functions. Trig, and Algebra and Trig.

All these teachers combined to make Math both fun and interesting to their students. And even if they don't know how to integrate dx into dy , at least they can hold the chalk so it doesn't screech on the board.

Joe Bonahoom is obviously thinking of something better than Algebra and Trig.

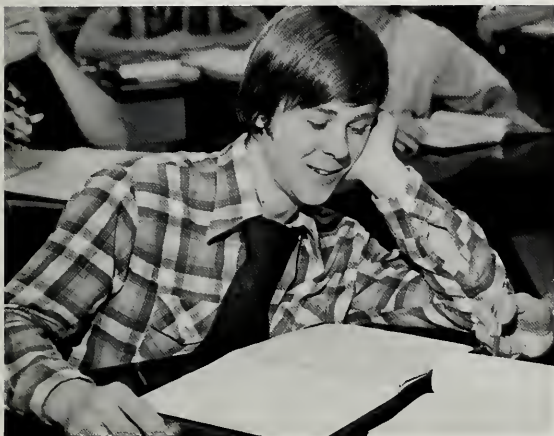

"Tom, Mr. Crall's at the front of the room."

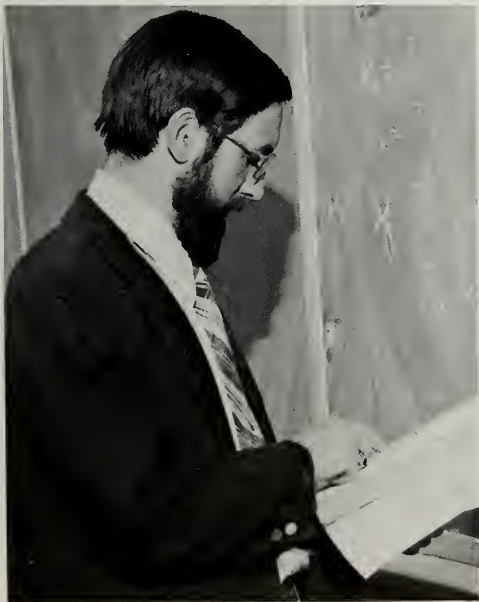

Dr. Ruiz can still smile after working all these Algebra problems on the board.

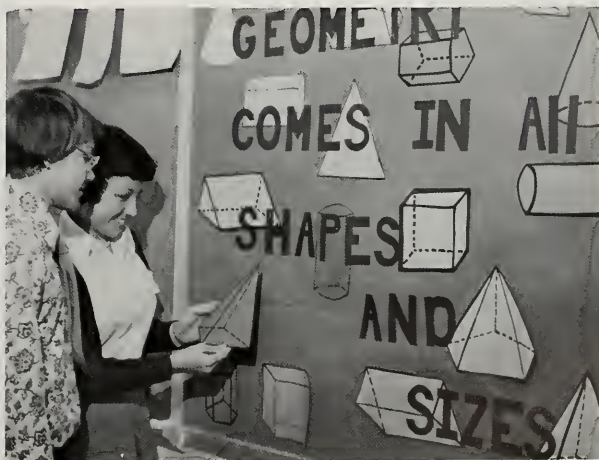

Larry Siegel clearly understands all factors involved in Math class.

Mr. Crall is caught in the act of cheating as he quickly scans his answer book.

This is a cubic foot and Barb Walker says that there are five more of these in each new Chevrolet.

Are these Geometry shapes better than Farrah Fawcett's?

History: Antics With The Ancients

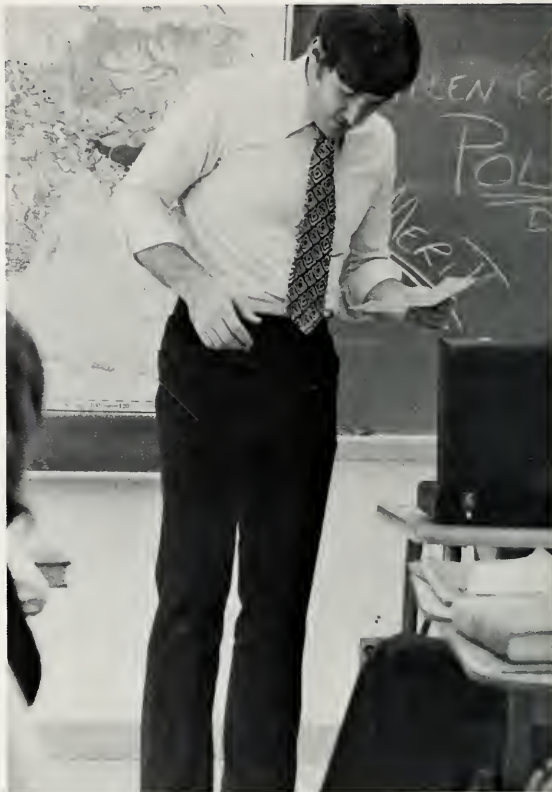

Joe Motherwell argues with Mr. Ray, who has confiscated what he considers contraband in his room, a comb.

As everyone knows, history, or the development of man over the centuries, plays an important role in today's society. This years Social Studies department endeavored to illustrate this role.

Headed by Mr. Francis Ray, along with Mr. Bart, Mr. Herber, Mr. Koester and Mr. Tone, the Social Studies department helped to bring a "new" understanding of history to their students. With such courses as World History, U.S. History, Government, Economics, and World Geography there was something for everyone.

Complete with costumes and equipment, the teachers brought the past to life and the present to the classroom. And with this combination, plus a lot of discipline, demonstrations, laughter and bad jokes, the teachers succeeded in making better citizens of all their students.

"Is it dead yet?"

Alan Nichter shows Mr. Koester his solution to the energy crisis by insulating the wall with newspaper.

"This is Germany, isn't it Mr. Bart?"

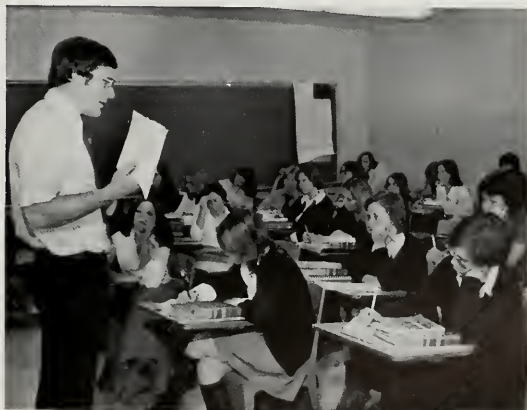

Mr. Herber gives his class a real live demonstration of guerilla warfare.

Brian Alberding demonstrates a philosophy that all the History teachers believe in. Healthy bodies make healthy minds.

Government is so easy, Jeanne can do it with her eyes closed.

It appears that Mr. Tone is discussing something serious with his usually lively class, either that or it's Monday morning.

Suzie, Marijo and Carol ponder Mrs. Gloman's easier questions.

Tom Schall is amused as he studies for one of Mr. Colvin's Earth Science tests.

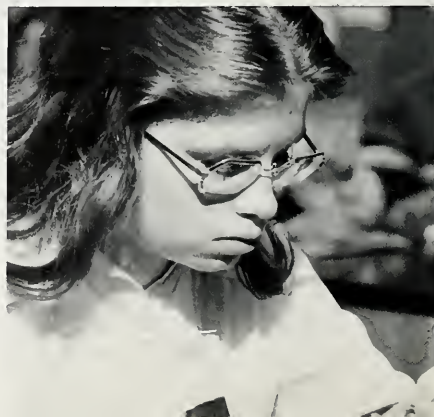

By the expression on Jim's face, it seems apparent that Murphy's laws are still in existence.

Mrs. Gloman's classes learn from Mr. Pat Bolman of the joys and frustrations encountered in conservation work.

Two new members joined the staff of the Bishop Dwenger Science Department. Sr. Renee, along with her duties in the Math Department, assisted Mr. Colvin in Chemistry. Mr. Loney, a new face to the Science Department, but not to B.D. aided Sr. Theresa Marie and Mr. Walker, in teaching one sophomore biology class. Mrs. Gloman, head of the department, initiated the first Science Club in the school — The Scientific Saints. Various speakers and projects added to the curriculum of the year.

Cheryl Branning finds out that setting a broken arm is not as easy as it looks.

Julie prepares a Sowers slide.

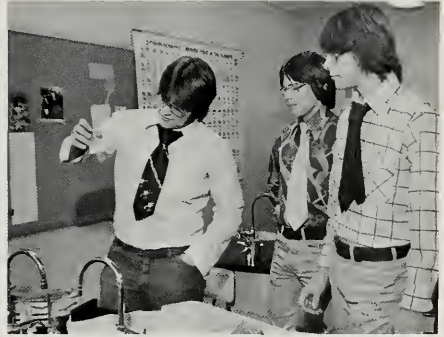

Please don't change the channel Carol; we want to watch The Mickey Mouse Club.

Scientific Saints Search For Answers

Tango or Fox Trot?

Steve Tippmann, assisted by Mike Voigt and Mark Parsons appear to be the new mad scientists at Dwenger.

Rhonda Roy seems to be very pleased with her results in Anatomy.

Language Opens New Worlds

The Bishop Dwenger language department was joined by one new face this year. Mrs. Simmons, head of the department, welcomed Mrs. Reily to the language staff. Mrs. Teusch, Mr. Tierney and Mr. Weber instructed students not only in the Spanish language but also in the culture. Mr. Weber and his German students, along with the other language classes, frequently took advantage of the expanding language lab.

When the bell rings even Mr. Tierney is over-anxious to get out of class.

Just a minute — Nancy it's for you.

These first year German students learn some of the heritage through the songs.

With the help of Mrs. Teusch, these Spanish students delve into one of Spain's great cities.

Peggy Offerle, Terry Schuster, and Kathy Rownd realize that Germany hasn't changed over the last year.

Teresa Deturk expresses her true sentiments for the class.

Monday ... 2nd period ... German ... Mike ... BLAH!

Pat LaPlante and Terri Long discuss the finer points of Latin 3.

Is this Mrs. Simmons assisting one of her students with a French project.

These French students dream of the day that they will travel to Paris.

Mr. Ryan, Mr. Krouse, and Mrs. Flowers, working together in the Business Department, offered a variety of courses designed to aid students in the development of clerical skills. These included Personal Typing, Typing I, Shorthand I & II and Notehand, as well as Office Practice. For those students more adept with figures, Accounting and Bookkeeping were available.

Working together, the Business staff, headed by Mr. Ryan, conditioned inexperienced students to be typists, bookkeepers and business personnel, for future jobs.

"Wait until your a little older, I'll give you something better in a bottle."

Business: Preparation For Life

Is accounting really as interesting as it seems to Judy Feichter and Sandy Gladieux?

Mrs. Flowers, newest member of the business staff, prepares her class for better jobs in the future.

Terri Freehill and Chris Braun find out everything about being married except the honeymoon.

Mr. Ryan points out to Tamey Arney her finesse in the art of making mistakes.

Jeanne Alter knows how to make shorthand symbols; the question is how to read them.

Mr. Ryan's typing class delves into the possibilities of typing quickly, without getting their fingers stuck between the keys.

Mike Ray is learning to respect the great Persian rug makers of the Far East.

Concentration, dedication, and elaboration produce the quality works of art that we at Dwenger have come to admire.

Dave Porter proves that even though injured, you can't keep a good artist down.

Deb Rissing shows what happens when you become too involved in your art.

These Freshmen show off the new Dwenger dress shirt — but will Fr. Krason approve?

Kim McDonald shows the proper technique and amount of concentration needed for sculpting.

Straight lines are one of the more difficult feats conquered in Mechanical Drawing.

Art Students Develop Their Talents

"Penny, I'm not kidding. Mass DOES start in 15 minutes!"

The creative abilities of the students in the Art Department are seen in the variety of techniques and styles of expression. Future artists of Dwenger have the opportunity to develop their talent in arts and crafts of their greatest interest.

Meanwhile, in the Mechanical Drawing department, beginning students learned the basic concepts of industrial drawing, coding, and design. More advanced students learned to deal with more specialized and difficult areas of Architectural drawing and planning, as well as studying building codes.

Students Gain Experience In The Domestic Arts.

Steve Locke and Linda Kucharski learn that co-operation in the kitchen may not be the neatest way to cook, but it is one of the most enjoyable.

Mrs. Bachman, head of the Home Ec Department, demonstrates the correct way to carve a turkey.

Though it may appear Theresa Dimpke is taking a second helping, she's actually putting back her first.

Shelly Silk must be an excellent cook as she obviously enjoys eating her creations.

Home Ec classes gave B.D. students a chance to gain valuable experience in the domestic arts. The students not only learned how to bake cakes and other goodies, but also how to plan well balanced meals. In sewing classes, students progressed from a simple apron to a jacket or blazer. Although females dominated most of the Home Ec classes, a few courageous males tried their hands at cooking and sewing in the Chef and Tailoring classes. Perhaps someday, the males will find the skills developed in the classes invaluable.

Michele Wilkinson carefully takes homemade bread out of the oven.

Could Mrs. Bachman be wondering what some student is attempting to make, or is this just a case of the Monday morning blahs?

1974923

Maybe Steve Weingartner and Terry Schlund can tell us . . . is it more fun making a taco, or eating one?

Wow! Look at those muscles! No, not Greg's — Mr. Minch's!

Lisa Groves looks on with awe as Viv Rosswurm smashes the volleyball over the net.

The P.E. students found many activities to keep them busy. The girls utilized the tumbling mats, uneven parallel bars, balance beam and trampoline to keep in shape, while the boy's P.E. classes consisted of such activities as basketball, volleyball, football, soccer and wrestling. Both boys and girls gym classes learned the fine art of square dancing. They also played volleyball together.

Due to the determined leadership of Miss MacCartney and Mr. Minch the gym classes taught sportsmanship and competitiveness, yet they were enjoyable for all students.

"Coach, are you sure Bill Walton started this way?"

P.E. Builds Character And Co-ordination

"My sweat socks are killing me!"

Kathy Westendorf shows perfect form going up; the question is how to get down.

As usual, the band had a very busy schedule this year. Ball games, trips, pep sessions, parades, and contests kept them moving. In the NISBOVA solo ensemble contest the band came home with 72 medals — 44 gold and 28 silver. Sue Koch, Chris Koch, Beth Grutsch, and Tim Woods went to state and took first place honors. For the annual spring tour, the band went to Chicago.

The twirlers showed more talent this year than anyone thought possible. Besides knowing how to play an instrument, they learned corp style marching with rifles and flags. In addition to getting together on their own to practice, they also attended Smith Walbridge Twirling Camp last summer to get ideas for new twirling routines. Later on in the summer they went to Tri-State with the band to practice playing their instruments and also to practice their new rifle and flag routines.

Dwenger Sings Out

Are these the Levys? Or are they Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers?

Concentrating on her singing, Bea Nader is unaware of the camera.

Along with her other duties in Chorus, Mrs. Levy also directs the orchestra.

The 1977 Bishop Dwenger Chorus.

By the expression on her face, Chris obviously enjoys singing.

The chorus' singing is even better when accompanied by Bob Helmer on the piano.

Under the direction of Mrs. Levy, the chorus knows which note goes where.

"Brian, I think it would be easier if the guitar was in front of you!"

When singing with the chorus, Terri's big mouth comes in handy.

Virginia Freiburger displays her musical talent by joining the rest of the orchestra in performing with the chorus.

We've Got Spirit

Junior Varsity, TOP, Jamie Sommers, Maria Schon, Mary Maher, BOTTOM, Eva Klaffke, Kris Knecht, Theresa Didier.

During the year, the Varsity and Junior Varsity Cheerleaders put forth a lot of effort to support the various sports at Bishop Dwenger. They organized a variety of activities to foster school spirit. The school was treated to "lick 'em" days, bake sales, and candy. They also scheduled and planned several pep sessions and skits. The cheerleaders hosted many fund-raising activities which included selling plants, bleacher cushions, hats, and pom-poms.

Tricia Dillon, Judy Feichter, and Mary Fagan think we're number 1.

Cathy and Diane pose the $128,000 question, "How's this for a perfect ending Mrs. T.?"

This year the Bishop Dwenger pom-pom squad took on a few new looks. Aside from the new girls who joined the squad, it was also Mrs. Christina Teusch's first year as pom-pom moderator. To add extra sparkle to their half-time routines, the girls all pitched in and raised the money, through a garage sale and car wash, for new uniforms and props. Pom-pon is an all year activity: in the summer the girls go to camp for practice and to learn new routines. Our girls went to camp at Ball State for four days. They brought home the Super Team trophy and over sixty blue ribbons. This accomplishment along with their enthusiastic support of our varsity teams throughout the year deserves our thanks and appreciation.

Liz Blume doesn't seem to share the other girls excitement about the game as the cold wins out.

Mrs. Teusch poses with Senior co-captains Barb Jehl and Jeanne Sordelet.

The '77 Superlatives

Bob and Fran are stepping up in the world — both in their own way.

How much value is there sitting under a tree?

What form, What style! Matt and Karen aren't bad either.

Even being on the rocks Ellen and Jeff don't lose their good naturedness.

Diane was all smiles through the year.

Paula and Matt were always "all around" whenever they were needed.

Margie and Mike are always up to something.

Although Sue needs twelve books to study, Dan finds one sufficient.

"All dressed up" but no place to go ... except to class.

If Julie is so friendly, why isn't Jim smiling?

For Mark and Terri, "all the world's a stage" on which to show their talents.

Chris and Ann appear "charmed" although not necessarily with each other.

Even though most athletic, Julie and Mike need a little help from the muscle machine.

All three — Dan, Jody and the tree — are very “poplar.”

Pat and Eric stubbornly refuse to budge an inch — maybe the tree will!

Is Ann shy, or is she playing hide and seek?

It doesn't take a skirt to flirt.

This picture was taken with the co-operation of Mike and Dani.

The Prom of 1977 provided a fun-filled and memorable night for everyone on May 13. The nuns sponsored a party at the convent before the Prom. The Prom was held at the Indiana-Purdue Ballroom and lasted from 9:00 to 12:00. Music was provided by the Dick Brown Orchestra. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Barb Jehl as queen by Eric Braun, Class President. Everyone had a good time while slow dancing in formals and tuxes.

The After-Prom was held at Ceruti's Hall and lasted from 1:00 to 4:00. Changing into less formal clothing and dancing to the music of Sheba lent an exciting atmosphere to a very memorable evening.

Prom Queen Barb Jehl and her date Jeff Collins.

The chaperones also had a wonderful evening watching the dancing, listening to the music, and socializing together.

Bjorn Pedersen and Kathi Kahn really swing to the beat of this song.

Slow dancing to soft music proved to be enjoyable for everyone.

Junior Peggy Daugherty is busy serving punch to many thirsty Seniors, including Jeff Maxwell and Julie Neddeff.

Dan Wunderlin and Kathy Jansen step out in style on their way to the Prom.

Barb Urion finds a chance to talk about old times with Anita Alter, Scott Kersjes, Fran Perugini, and Mike Litch.

Suzie Voors and escort make their way down the many flights of stairs as they leave the Prom.

A fun night of dancing and socializing was experienced by all who attended the Prom.

Baccalaureate — Graduation

This year B.D. held it's eleventh annual Commencement ceremonies. The Baccalaureate Banquet held on May 20 gave recognition to the students of the Class of '77. Valedictorian Fran Perugini and Salutatorian Sue Helton spoke to the graduates after a delicious dinner. Awards and scholarships were presented to outstanding individuals of the Senior Class. The Class officers then presented the school with a gift from the Senior Class - a statue of Bishop Joseph Dwenger sculpted by Hector Garcia.

The Graduation Ceremony was held on May 27 in the school gym. The Mass was concelebrated by Bishop McManus and priests from the feeder parishes. The long-awaited diplomas were handed out by the Bishop after the homily.

Time Passes But Memories Linger.

"Even scientists have to eat!"

Oh, no! The Loch Ness monster!

The Junior officers and moderators should be commended on a job well done.

Micki Klingenger was one of the Juniors whose participation in the Mass made it a memorable one.

"The sign of the Class of '78."

Even though the time is past, the memories of Junior Day will linger in our minds for years to come. Our day began with a liturgical sacrifice in the gym, during which the traditional rings were distributed by Fr. Krason. The Mass was followed by a scrumptious brunch at the Heritage House. Then it was on to Shoaff Park for our class picnic, where the sun co-operated and provided a great day. In the evening, Brushfire furnished the music for the Junior Day dance.

Ken Gaffer is congratulated and urged to "... continue to be a Saint..." by Father Krason.

Therese McLinden and Jan Walker are the real swingers of the Junior class.

STUDENT LIFE

Homecoming '76 . . . Never Better Times

Julie Badiac and Brady Long share a special moment at the dance.

The members of the 1976 Homecoming court are Queen Lisa Woenker, Juli Sisco, Jody Hueber, Renee McBride, and Kelley McDonald.

Teamwork, expert coaching, and a tremendous amount of spirit contribute to the Saints' victory over North Side.

Homecoming is a special weekend which is celebrated only once a year. Within a few short days, many things, which will never be forgotten, were experienced. Perhaps for the first time one felt the unity among the students, or the enthusiasm and support extended to the football team. Or as a senior, one may have been saddened at the thought of a last Homecoming as a student, or have been relieved at the idea of only one more year of homework. Maybe as one thinks back, he will remember the happiness of winning the game or just the fun shared with friends. Someday we may look back and say ... There were never better times.

The Homecoming float stands ready to go.

Dan Brewer and Tom Offerle satisfy their unending appetites at the Fish Fry.

The surprise and excitement of being named Homecoming Queen is shown on Lisa's face.

As anyone can tell you, Barb is having a great time.

Between dances Juli finds a minute to help Lisa adjust her crown.

Dan Kelly, bursting with exuberance, cheers a BD touchdown.

A few of the 1976 graduates return to visit with old friends and reminisce about good times.

Assemblies Provide Change Of Pace

Through this year's pep sessions, B.D. students showed their enthusiasm and school spirit. Aside from the usual cheers and skits, the assemblies offered many varied and interesting programs to break the monotony of the school year. The highlights included the Shakespearian Actors from New York and the Pepsi-Cola presentation on communications. The productions were entertaining as well as educational, and were enjoyed by everyone.

Student Council Provides Leadership

Dave O'Dowd shows his best quality — talking.

The Student Council experienced a lot of changes this year with the acquisition of two new moderators, Mr. Francis Ray and Mrs. Sharon Kaltenmark. The highlight of the year came with the successful completion of this years raffle, collecting over $20,000!! They also sponsored several dances throughout the year which added to the social life at Dwenger. The annual Christmas party for the Montessori school and Christmas family project succeeded in their respective goals.

One of the Council's most successful projects was collecting articles for the Christmas families.

One of the services performed by the Key Club is to usher for graduation.

Just like elves, the Z-Club members are present but never seen.

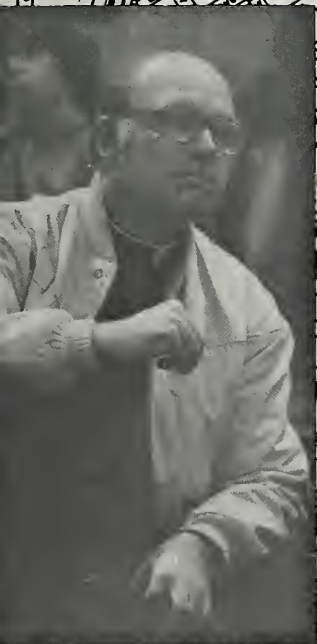

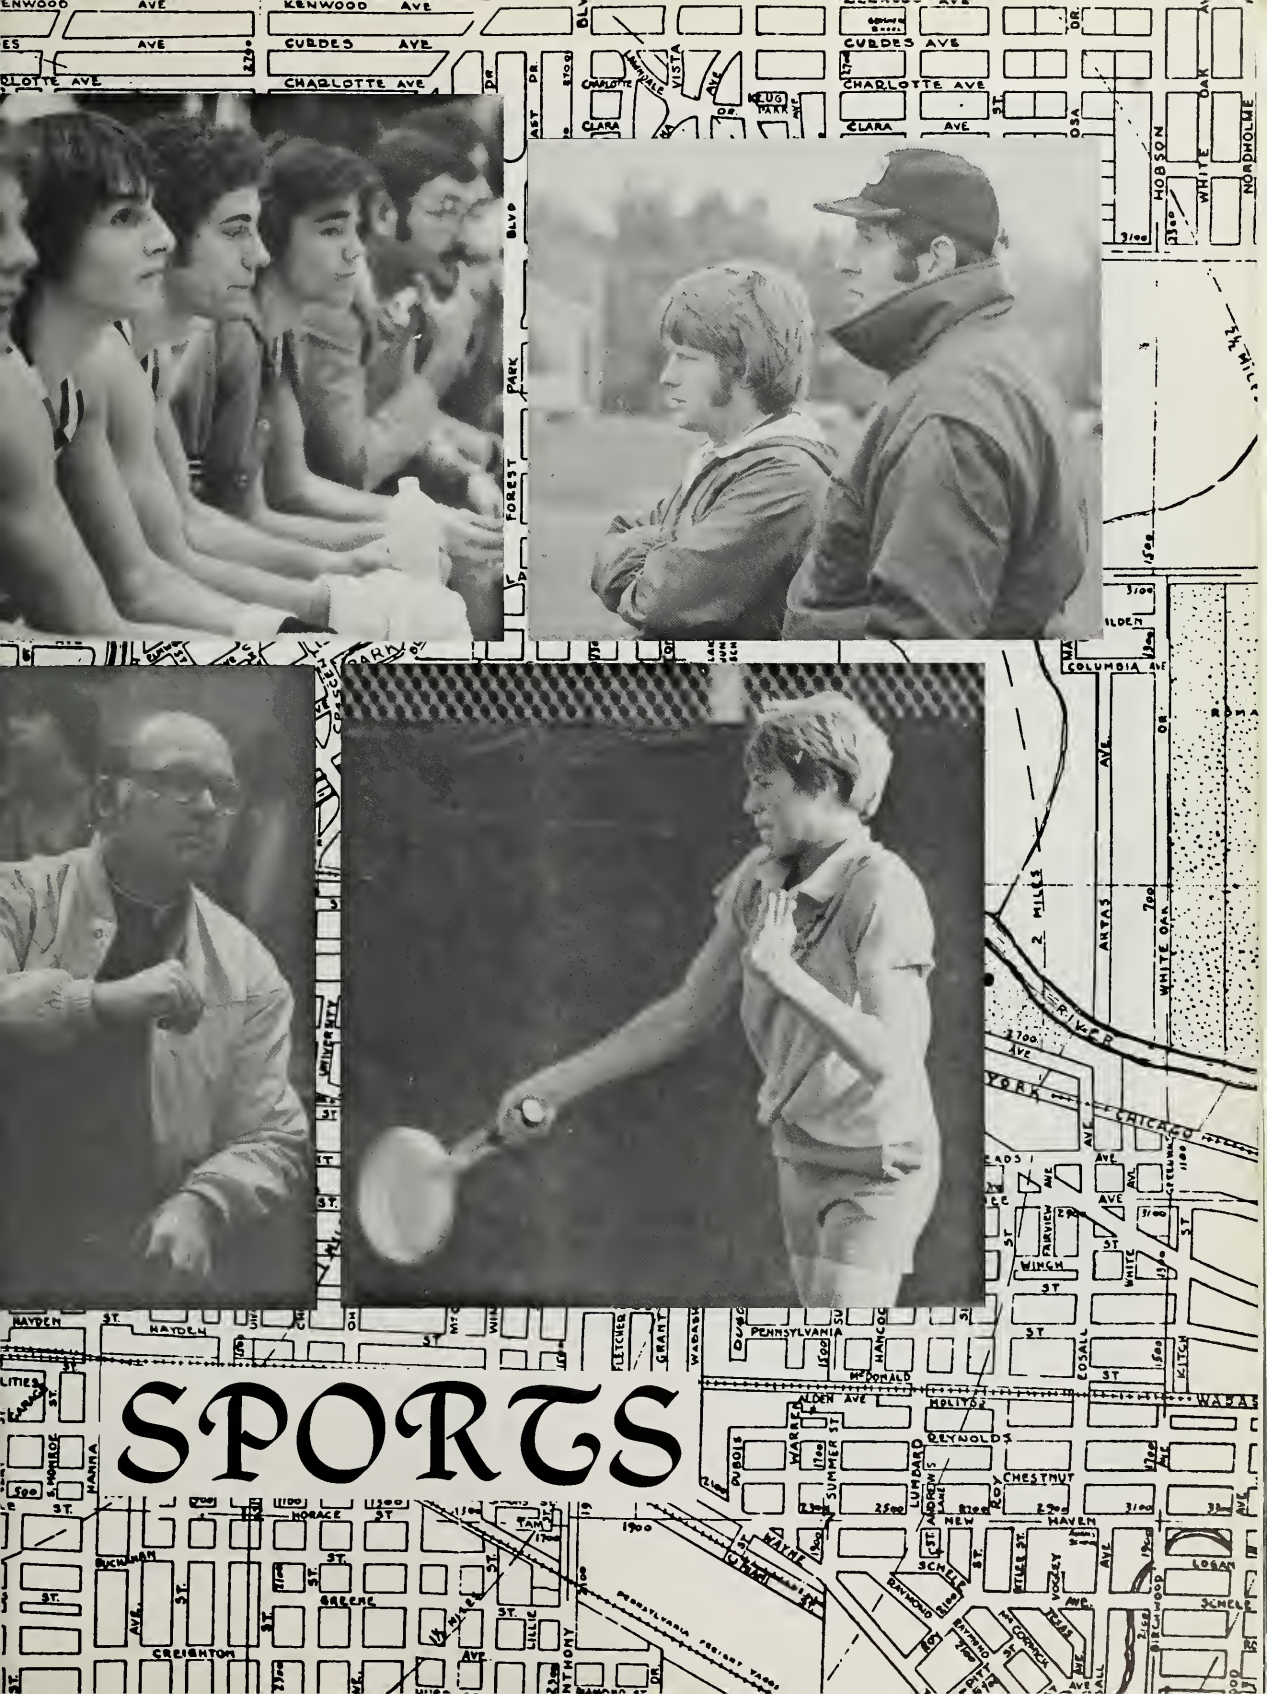

The Key and Z-Clubs are the most dedicated groups in our school, unselfishly giving of themselves to make their projects a success. Their cooperation and service was greatly appreciated during the year. A big thank you to all of our unsung heroes and heroines.

Parents Lend A Hand

This year the Mother's Club lent its support to the school by sponsoring the Christmas Bazaar and organizing monthly bake sales in the cafeteria, donating the money to the school chapel. The ladies also presented a Style Bridge in the spring. The Men's Club hosted the Athletic Awards Dinner for this year's outstanding athletes and also held a New Year's Eve Dance. The Home and School Association sponsored the annual Back-to-School Night during which parents had an opportunity to meet their children's teachers, along with other informative gatherings designed to interest the members.

Saints Net Second Straight Sectional Smear

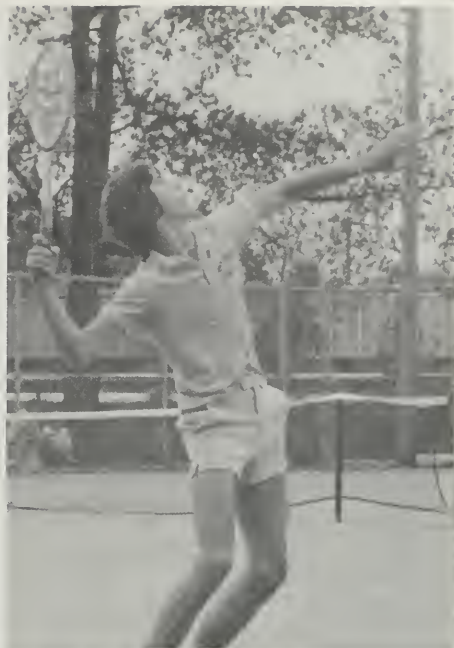

Eric Bagnall, Dwenger's four year tennis Superstar, practices a new tactic to use on his opponents.

Bishop Dwenger's tennis men accomplished a feat never before achieved in SAC history. They captured a third consecutive city title, finishing undefeated during the regular season. The Saints then went on to repeat as Sectional champs. Dwenger's tennis dynasty was led by a fine group of Seniors who refused to quit after clinching the city title over Elmhurst. Eric Bagnall continued his undefeated streak this season, eliminating seventeen foes in a row. The team, along with Coach Ryan, deserve a great deal of credit for a tremendous season.

Dan steps back to examine the effects of one of his smashing returns on his opponent.

Lauren sets his eye on the ball and prepares to let go with one more sizzling return for another Dwenger win.

Jeff gets ready to add another triumph to the Dwenger list with a deadly answer to his opponents serve.

Football: Thrills And Disappointments

FRONT ROW, LEFT TO RIGHT; Jeff Moeller, Jim Garrett, Jim Brown, Ed Ulshafer, Mike Weissert, Tom Kaehr, Mike Secrest, Tim Rolfsen, Mike Sciarini, Tom Offerle, Skip McKenna. SECOND ROW; Jim Wyss, Mark Lauer, Kevin Lill, Dan Brewer, Matt Schnelker, Joe Freistoffer, Tom Salisbury, Jim Logue, Kevin Hartman, Pete Haughan, Fred Franke, Coach Johns. THIRD ROW; Coach Herber, Mike Yarnelle, John Weigand, Mike Peconge, Tim Yastremski, Jim Carroll, Tom Schon, Bill Gorman, Tom Dixon, Joe Yankowiak, Coach Bart. FOURTH ROW; Phil Roy, Matt Momper, Randy Harkenrider, Tom Isaacs, Chris Dager, Dave Passino, Mike Higgins, Jim Steigmeyer, Dave Roy, Dave Grote, Dave Farnbaugh, Mark Porter, Tim Shaw, Paul Hurst, Fr. Pfister, Mr. Tone.

The "thrill of victory" and the "agony of defeat" is the best way to describe the Saint's 1976 football season. The thrills came in defeating tenth ranked Elmhurst and the Redskins of North Side, but the agony came in losing to South Bend Washington, Snider, and of course that bewitched team from the south side of the city, Bishop Luers. This year the Saints were slated to be one of the best teams in the city, but it seemed that the team just couldn't put it together when the occasion arose. Our team was led by a super group of seniors and was backed up by a talented group of juniors and underclassmen. Bishop Dwenger was represented in the All-North selection with seven players, and in the All-City selection with four players, Jeff Moeller, Mike Sciarini, Fred Franke and Mike Weis-sert. Dwenger was also represented by two outstanding athletes, Jim Brown and John "Skip" McKenna, who were ranked second and third in the SAC conference in points scored. The coaching staff, Mr. Bart, Mr. Tone and Mr. Herber, did a great job. They devoted a tremendous amount of time and effort this year so that our athletes could have the best training facilities around. Fr. Pfister also played an important role, both spiritually and physically, in backing the team members. Our Saints were well supported with excellent cheerleaders, a fine band and dedicated and devoted fans. Even though the team did not finish as champions they will always be champions in the minds of the Dwenger students and fans.

Fr. Pfister; An inspirational leader.

Winning another game — a Dwenger Tradition.

In his years as coach, Mr. Bart found visual aids helpful. Here he displays one he found useful for the varsity.

Mr. Tone is amazed at the way pin-ups look sideways, but Mr. Herber seems unimpressed.

If I've told you once, I've told you a thousand times. We're not here to impress the cheerleaders.

Mr. Koester, Mr. Tone and Mr. Herber did it again. Combining their talents outside of the classroom, the trio produced two strong teams with eyes on the varsity. Mixing their ability to coach football and teach history, they instilled in their players the tradition of Dwenger pride and perseverance. These teams were taught the basics and backbone of B.D. football, those principles they will carry to future varsity teams.

Harriers Have Winning Season

The Dwenger cross country team established itself as one of the finest groups of high school harriers in Northeastern Indiana. Led by captain Mark Brosmer and a fine group of upperclassmen, the Saints rolled up a 12-5 record. The team placed fifth at the tough Manchester Invitational, and finished third in the Summit Athletic Conference. The Saints followed with a strong second place sectional finish, led by junior Greg Orman who placed sixth, Joe Lassen was eleventh, and sophomore John Nowlan twelfth. The team qualified for regional competition in which Dwenger placed seventh; again led by Orman who was fourteenth individually. The SAC finish was the best for Dwenger since 1969. The sectional and regional accomplishments were the teams best ever. The Saints will have no less than five lettermen back next season so another fine record can be expected from the cross country men.

Why does Dwenger win? ... It's obvious.

The matmen of Bishop Dwenger came through their season carrying a very impressive record. With their accumulated wins throughout the season, they finished third in the SAC rating and placed two Seniors, Mike Sciarini and Dave Porter, on the All-SAC team. Early in their season, the team expertly captured the Adams Central Tourney. The Saints sent twelve wrestlers to the Sectionals, more than any other team in the area, and they came away placing seven men into the Regionals. The team is losing many good men as the Seniors graduate, but with backups like Alex Palermo and Fred Gabet, who beat their previously undefeated opponents in the tourney, the team looks pretty good for next year.

Mike Sciarini, Saints heavyweight, doesn't seem to be having much of a problem with his opponent.

Coach Tone is caught in one of his more unusual moods at a match ... totally calm.

Track Keeps Its Distance

Greg Orman seems to be having a problem getting his sweats off, or maybe he's hoping they'll run the two-mile without him.

"That sure is a long way down," observes this Dwenger pole vaulter.

The Varsity boys track team did well in the long run this year. Junior Tom O'Connell went to State in the mile, while Greg Orman and John Nowlan made it to Regionals in the two-mile and mile respectively. As a team, the cindermen found the going hard, as they won only three out of eight dual and triangular meets. The Junior Varsity squad, however, ran to victory in seven meets, while being beaten in only one meet.

Fred Franke is multi-talented. After releasing the discus, he goes right into a cartwheel.

Tom O'Connell, Dwenger's Saintsational miler, went to State.

Saints Score Impressive Finish

Steve Nicole, Mgr. Mark Bonahoom.

"Oh, come on you guys, let me have the ball."

The Bishop Dwenger Saints had one of the best seasons in recent years, with an impressive finish in the Sectional Tournament. They started out quickly, winning three out of the first four games, including a thriller against Carroll which went into double overtime. The high point of the season came during Sectionals when the team scored a last-second basket to defeat Carroll, bringing the Saints to the final game. Unfortunately they were defeated by a strong Wayne team.

The Saints were led by high-scoring Kevin Wagner who was named to the All-SAC team for the second year, while Jeff Maxwell received honorable mention. Chris Kelly was named to the All-Sectional team for his exceptional playing in the game against Carroll. With the loss of these players and the absence of Matt Kostoff, Ed Ulshafer, Scott Brown, and Bob Leitel, Dwenger will have a rebuilding year next year.

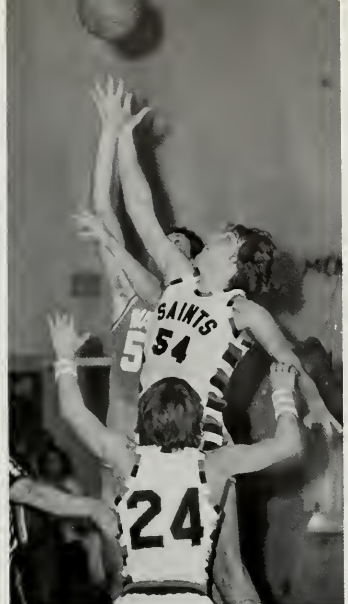

Chris Kelly aims for the bucket as his opponent tries to get his attention.

What's wrong #42, did Jeff forget his Right Guard again?

The JV basketball team experienced equally the thrill of victory and the agony of defeat, as they finished the season with an 8-8 record. For the first time Coach Dave Scudder had an assistant, Kent Ryan. The Frosh squad had another winning season, dropping only four games in 17 starts. The freshmen displayed excellent defense all season under Coach Bob Herber.

How do you know if you're winning the game number 27, you're not even awake.

The baseball team experienced an off season. With many players missing from last year, the coaches worked on building the talents of the many underclassmen. The highlight of the season was a 22-22 tie against Adams Central. John Nonemaker hit two grand-slam home runs in the first inning of that game. With a record this year of 7-18, next year can only get better.

... and Dwenger gets a run.

Saints Hook SAC

The CHAMPS Jim Purviance, Jim Houlihan, Joe Bonahoom, Russ Carroll, Dave Krach, Pat Houlihan, Cary Jankowski, Coach "Dandy Don" Ryan, Dan Krach, Mark Bonahoom, Tim Ream, Tony Frick, Jeff Maxwell.

Under the "Fine leadership and professional expertise" of our dedicated coach Dandy Don Ryan, the Saints golf team won its second straight SAC title. With the leadership of Jeff "the Hacker" Maxwell and the dynamic duo of the two Houlihan brothers, Junior Jim and Sophomore Pat, the team seemed to have a good shot at the city title from the beginning of the season.

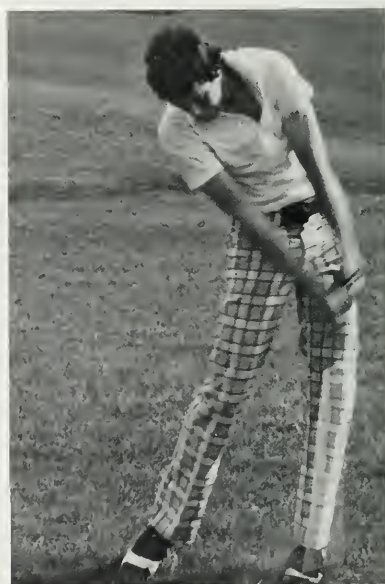

As the season progressed, this prediction proved to be well founded as demonstrated by Senior "Hacker" Maxwell who placed first in the sectional individual scoring. Even though Maxwell and four other Veteran Seniors are leaving the team, with back-ups like the Houlihans returning next year, the third straight city title looks pretty good.

This Dwenger "Hacker" works on his putt-putts.

Jeff Maxwell seems more interested in something off the green than he is in lining up his putt. Who is it Jeff?

Jim Houlihan's swing is faster than the eye can follow ... or the camera.

A new sport was offered to the female athletes this year, gymnastics. The girls competed this year in the beginning and intermediate levels, winning three meets at the beginning level. They defeated Carroll, Huntington

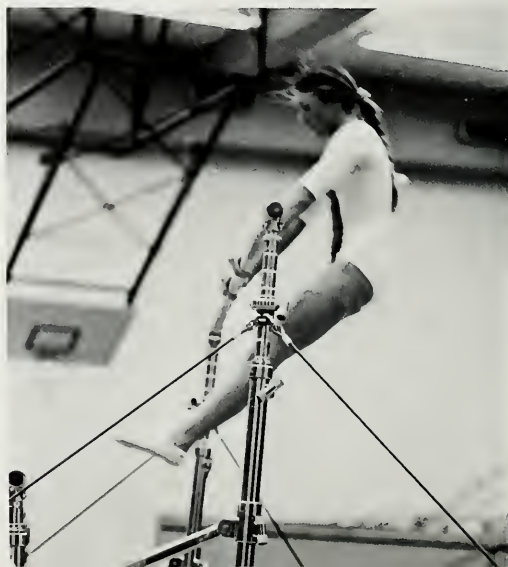

North and North Side. The saints were not in competition for the SAC title, as they did not participate in the optional level. Next year, they however, will be able to compete in the SAC at all three levels.

The squad was led by Captain Kris Knecht and co-Captain Sue Goheen and was coached by Mrs. Sue Dominiak. Congratulations are due to all the gymnasts and their coach for an encouraging first season.

Bishop Dwenger's girls volleyball team finished their season with a winning 9-6 record. The varsity team and their captain, Senior Julie Rosswurm, carried on the tradition of pride that the Saints of Bishop Dwenger have always had in their well deserved victories in the area of sports. This pride springs from a long road of hard work, determination, and a feeling of confidence and belief in what the team stood for. The girls on all three teams, varsity, junior varsity, and freshman, along with coaches Pam McCartney and Sue Dominiak deserve our thanks for another wonderful season.

The girls tennis team just couldn't be beat this year, at least not by any of the other city schools. They won their first SAC title with a smashing 9-0 record. Their only loss was to Huntington North. They also finished runner-up to Concordia in the Sectional Tournament. The freshman doubles team of Sue Weigand and Jane Nolan went undefeated during the season and won the Sectional doubles competition. Congratulations are due Coach Sue Dominiak and her female raquetteers for completing the 'set' of tennis titles won by BD this year. With many players returning next year, the girls will have an excellent chance to successfully defend their SAC title.

The Look of Champions

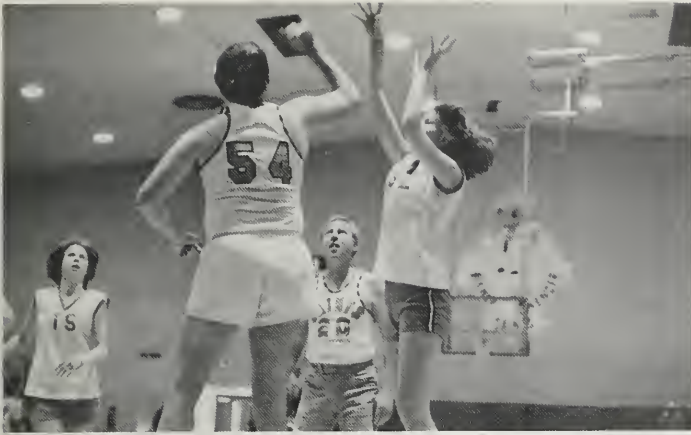

The girl's basketball team was crowned City Champs, sporting a 14-1 record. The entire season was exciting, from a last second win over Snider to the defeat of Concordia for the City Title. Their only defeat came in the first Sectional game against a strong Leo team. Senior Julia Rosswurm, junior Lisa Berghoff, and sophomore Beth Pruden were named to the All-SAC team and Lisa and Beth were chosen for the All-Area team. Coaches Pam McCartney and Mary Allor are to be congratulated for turning out such a strong team from many long hours of hard work and encouragement. With many players returning next year and promising reserve players, Coach McCartney looks for another good season next year.

After four laps, Debbie Shaw finally finds the finish line.

The "Raisins", also known as the girls track team, had many firsts this year. Topping the list, they won Dwenger's first SAC track crown. The girls edged Snider by one point to earn the title. The "Raisins" also produced BD's first State winner in the form of the 880 relay. The foursome of Michelle Barr, Janna Krach, Sue Hendricks and Maria Reitzug were undefeated during the season and set new-Sectional, Regional and State records. Also participating in the State meet were Maria in the 100 and Lynn Berry in the softball throw. Congratulations are due Head Coach Pam McCartney and her assistant, ex-"Raisin" Laurie Usina as well as the girls who made up the team.

Congratulations to the class of '77 in its hour of accomplishment and expectation.

Today, more than ever, the wise use of your advertising dollar necessitates the proper use of all the graphic arts. The image you project in your brochures, ads, catalogs and letterheads most often will gain or lose a potential customer. Blue-J Publishing stands ready to design and execute art, layout, photography, retouching and paste-up to give your product the dynamic literature it deserves. Blue-J Publishing is the proud home of Bowhunter, the magazine for the hunting archer.

June 1977

After two years of serving as co-editors of the Aureate, we now realize that working as a team is the only way. There are many individuals to whom we are grateful. We want to point out the undying efforts of a few outstanding people. First, there's the everlasting efforts of our two moderators, Mrs. Teusch and Mrs. Brown. Their willingness to help and patient understanding were always around.

In addition, we'd like to give special thanks to our professional photographer who never refused one of our "last minute" calls for pictures. We were also blessed by wonderful student photographers. Senior Mike Litch's contributions were always welcomed in our moments of need.

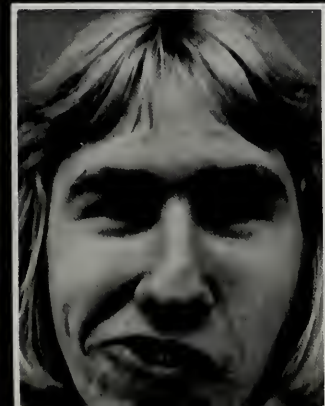

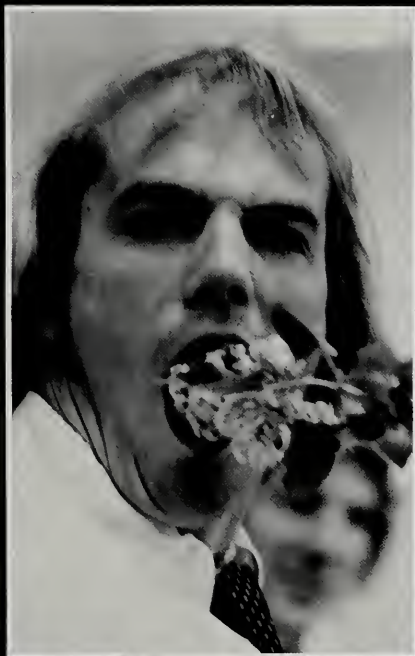

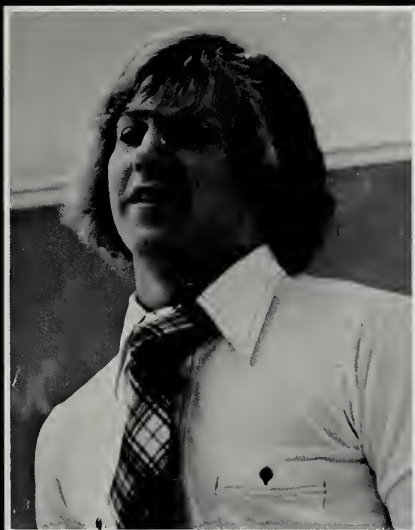

To the special group of "year bookers" who always gave their best we say thank you. They made working on the Aureate memorable and enjoyable.
